SCHOOL HONOURS, 1891-1892.

REPORT OF H.M.I. OF SCHOOLS

Boys' School.—"This School fully maintains its high reputation. Discipline is thoroughly good, and the instruction throughout in both Elementary and Class Subjects is marked by thoroughness, accuracy, and intelligence. The boys take a keen interest in their work, and both Algebra and Mechanics are very well taught."

Girls' School.—"The discipline, tone, and general efficiency of this School continue to deserve very high praise. The instruction in both Elementary and Class Subjects is thoroughly sound and intelligent throughout, and it would be difficult to single out any particular subject or class for special commendation."

Infants' School.—"The discipline, organization, and instruction of this School continue to deserve the highest possible praise."

REPORT OF INSPECTRESS OF NEEDLEWORK.

Girls' School.—"There is an excellent show of beautifully clean garments, and of useful and fancy knitting."

Infants' School.—"This department is doing remarkably well."
