

Two months for Mr. Saklatvala

Mr. Saklatvala, Socialist M.P. for North Battersea was sentenced to 2 months imprisonment at Bow Street Police Court to-day. Certain rioters have also been sent to prison but there has been no serious disorder in the London area.

NEWSPAPERS The London "Evening News" is publishing an emergency edition to-day.

There has been some difficulty in distributing copies of the "British Gazette" to the Newsagents owing to transport difficulties.

The general situation at Bradford is satisfactory and order is being well maintained.

Electricity and Gas services are being maintained by more staff.

Private bus services are still running and milk and food is being distributed in a satisfactory manner.

A skeleton tram service has been started.

The L.G.O.C. has started buses under the Police protection. Adequate measures are also being taken to ensure transport of petrol.

Arrangements have been made to run a mail train to Holyhead from Euston to-morrow.

The Underground lines in London will be open to-day. The Hampstead tube between Golders Green and the Strand will be open until 8 p.m. to-night.

It is hoped to increase this service still further later in the day.

400 men are now available for operating the Underground trains etc.

The S.S. "Paris" with passengers and mails will arrive at 7 p.m. to-morrow.