

Weekend and Evening Closures 1989

The growing railway

We're working overtime to make necessary improvements to the railway. That means we will have to close every weekend and after 9.30pm on weekdays until further notice.

When the work is completed we'll have a bigger railway with a better service.

And remember, during closures, we will run a substitute bus service from all stations.

Docklands

